

Owls Observer

Monday 9th May 2016

The sun has got it's hat on !!

With the arrival of some gorgeous weather, please could we ask that you put sun cream on your children first thing in the morning if we are due to have sunny weather. We will then put more sun cream on during the day.

The Queens 90th Birthday

This week we will be celebrating the Queen's 90th birthday. Some of the activities include making crowns with jewels on them. We will be changing the role play area into Buckingham Palace with a throne and gowns, they will also be dressing up as soldiers and marching.

Dates for your Diary

Spring Planting

The children have this week planted sunflower seeds and have been caring for the bean plants which are doing amazingly well in the nursery.

What We Did Last Week

Red group this week had fun reading and recognising signs and logos.

Yellow group had fun using the bears and the dolls house to practise their prepositions.

Pink group enjoyed looking at pictures of baby Willow, talking about how we change from babies. They also said they would like to bring their own baby pictures in to show each other.
